Thank-you!

Praise be to Jesus Christ.

It's been over two weeks since I left the Orillia Family of Catholic Churches and joined Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish, Toronto. Settling in slowly and getting to know the new parish family. Parishes in Orillia and area have a special place in my heart, as that is where I served over eight years, the longest period in my priestly ministry so far. From the very first day, I never felt alone, even in the middle of the pandemic you embraced me with parental love, brotherly and sisterly care, and true friendship. You became more than just parishioners—you became my family. For that, I will be forever grateful.

Your presence, your prayers, and your active participation in our parish communities and events have been a source of strength and joy for me. I am so grateful for the friendships we have cherished, the memories we have created, and the spiritual growth we have experienced together. I have witnessed God's grace working through you, and I am truly inspired by your dedication and commitment to our shared mission, as children of God.

A big thanks to all Priests, Deacons and Parish Staff who have been a tremendous support to me over the years in my ministry there.

I wish you all continued blessings and joy in your journey under the great leadership of the new Pastoral team. May God's love continue to guide and sustain you.

With heartfelt thanks and love,
 Fr. Prasanth George CMI

I would like to take a moment to express my gratitude to the Lord for the time that I spent at Guardian Angels Parish in Orillia. I have met in Orillia great people that Love the Lord and are dedicated to serve Him and His Church. I had a chance to work together with wonderful people. In a special way I wish to express my gratitude to Father Prasanth, Father Joseph, to Lori, to Pauline, to wonderful staff. I would like to say thank-you to all the people from all 5 churches. May God Bless you all. Keep doing God's work. Courage!
 Fr. Rafal Bartosinski
